We've got the spirit

Homecoming week is something special to these kids, who evidently went all out for Wednesday's "crazy dress-up" competition. We aren't sure exactly who won the contest, but as these pictures show, no one lost in the "good time" department. The girl in the mini and feather boa is senior Shannon Cuera, and the gent in the football helmet in need of glasses with windshield wipers is Paul Reynolds. The rest refused to be identified by pleading the fifth amendment.

Romulus man gets 25 years for robbery

A Romulus man has been convicted on charges of armed robbery and assault with intent to do great bodily harm, stemming from an April 26 incident.

Judge Helene White of the Wayne County Circuit Court last Tuesday sentenced Reginald Barkley, 30, to 14 to 25 years in prison on the robbery charge, and 6 to 15 years on the other. Although the sentences will be concurrent, it is believed that the earliest Barkley would be eligible for parole is 14 years.

According to Romulus Detective Sgt. David Early, the man broke into a home on the 9700 block of Shook Road at approximately 10:30 a.m. on April 26, 1984.

Reportedly, the man rode up to the house on a bicycle, got off and knocked on the door, inquiring about some property the resident had for sale. When the 69-year-old man opened the door, the intruder pulled out a handgun and entered the home and tied the man up.

He then ransacked the house, taking guns, money, various identification (including credit cards) and car keys.

Not content with just robbing the man, the thief hit the already-bound resident over the head with a crystal vase, fracturing his skull.

"He just left him there for dead," said Early.

Afterwards, the man managed to free himself, crawl to a neighbor's house and call the police.

About 3 p.m. that afternoon, it was reported that a man was attempting to use the victim's charge card at the J.C. Penney's Southland branch store. Management became suspicious when it turned out that the account had been closed and contacted security, who followed the man to his car.

A check with police showed that the car was the same one reported stolen earlier that day in Romulus. Both Taylor and Romulus police rushed to the scene, and Barkley was apprehended before he could leave the area.

According to Early, Barkley had legally changed his name from "Murdic Crummie," a name he had been arrested under on three separate occasions.

He was on parole at the time of his assault on the Romulus man, which, Early says, may have led to stiffer sentences than might be usual.

Union charges treasurer violated employment act

By STEVE O'LEARY
ANP Staff Writer

According to George Simko, president of Teamster's Local 214, Romulus Treasurer John Lewkowicz violated Section 10 of the Public Employment Relations Act when he tore down a job posting for an employee in the treasurer's office.

Lewkowicz says that's "hogwash."

On Oct. 26, a public hearing on the matter will be held in the downtown Detroit offices of the Bureau of Employment Relations before James P. Kurtz, administrative law judge.

Problems began after Personnel Director Marilyn Radford was directed to post a job for a temporary cashier in a letter from Simko, dated Aug. 30. In a notice to Lewkowicz, Radford stated that "in accordance with Teamsters' 214 union contract, you have a temporary employee in your office that has exceeded the 90-day provisions as stated in the contract."

Lewkowicz contends that the position, which had been filled by Kim Warden, did not need to be posted again.

"She (Warden) was hired as a full-time employee for a probationary period," he explained.

At a meeting held on Aug. 14, Sharon Walker, clerical steward of Local 214, told Lewkowicz that "temporary or seasonal employees shall not be subject to (union contract provisions) unless such employment shall last longer than 90 days."

At that time, Walker told the treasurer "the probationary period is 90 days," to which Lewkowicz responded "that's right."

"Her 90 days are up Aug. 20," Walker countered.

"So, she starts gaining seniority on her 91st day," stated Lewkowicz, to which Walker replied, "no John, the position has to be posted."

Walker admitted that in some cases, arrangements can be made for a temporary employee to stay on past the 90-day period. Lewkowicz requested that for Warden in a letter, dated Aug. 17, but in a reply dated Aug. 27, Chief Union Steward George Simko denied the request stating "the 90 days that the aforementioned position was held by Kim Warden without benefit of a posting has more than fulfilled any request made for time extension ... it is now appropriate and proper to post this position without further delay."

On Sept. 19, Teamsters Local 214 filed an unfair labor charge against Lewkowicz and the City of Romulus charging, among other things, that "on several occasions the treasurer has ripped down postings (for union positions)."

It also alleges that the tearing down of the postings "was done to frighten and intimidate this local's members and to interfere in our administration of the collective bargaining agreement."

For relief, the union is asking that a cease and desist order be issued; all court and attorney fees be paid by the treasurer or the city. Simko said they also are demanding that "it be made public, written down, that he (Lewkowicz) will refrain from becoming involved in union affairs."

"We also want a public reading of the statement to be given by the treasurer, after which it will be posted."

Warden remains on the job, since no union person applied for the cashier's job she held when it was posted. Although she has joined the union, it isn't clear whether or not she will reap any of the benefits her dues imply.

Romulus man charged in hijacking

By STEVE O'LEARY
ANP Staff Writer

An 18-year-old Romulus man was arrested and arraigned in Oklahoma last Saturday after he allegedly tried to hijack the cross-country bus he was riding.

Lemuel Lewis, 18, was a passenger on a Continental Trailways' New York-to-Phoenix bus when he allegedly became unhappy with the amount of rest stops the vehicle was making.

According to police in El Reno, Okla., Lewis reportedly put a knife to the driver's throat and demanded to be taken directly to California.

Lt. Derral Punneo, of the Oklahoma State Highway Patrol said that "he (Lewis) supposedly told another passenger that he was getting perturbed by all the stops the bus was making, and that if it made another one, he'd do something about it.

"When the bus stopped at a McDonald's Restaurant about 25 miles from Oklahoma City a little later, Lewis made his move," Punneo said.

"Apparently, the other passengers were not aware of what was going on until after they were on the bus already," said Punneo, "but since one of our officers later saw the bus driver being held around the neck area as he refused to pull over for speeding, I'm sure they figured it out pretty fast."

As the bus passed through Oklahoma City, troopers tried to pull it over for speeding. When the bus refused to stop, and officers observed the driver being held, a "rolling (road) block" was set up.

"One of our cars was severely damaged — although the officer is OK — When the bus just slammed into the car, sending it spinning into the center guard rail," said Punneo.

According to reports, the bus continued down the highway for approximately three miles, at which time it turned north on another road.

"A little bit later, the bus stopped at an intersection and Lewis surrendered himself to police, which were surrounding the much-chased vehicle," Punneo added.

Lewis, who is set for a pre-trial examination on Nov. 19, is facing 13 charges of kidnapping, and two of assault with a deadly weapon. Bond was set at $76,000 cash.

Council schedules hearing on tax increment financing

Romulus City Council has scheduled a public hearing for 7 p.m. Monday, Oct. 22, in the City Council Chambers for the purpose of discussing the creation of a Tax Increment Finance Authority (TIFA).

"This is an opportunity for all those who have any questions or concerns about the Tax Increment Finance Authority," said Romulus Mayor Beverly McAnally, "and to have them answered."

The Tax Increment Finance Authority Act, 450 P.A. (1980) is not an act to provide a new tax or an increase in existing taxes. Tax Increment Finance Authority (TIFA) allows the city to divert or capture all future taxes — school, city, county, etc. — which will be paid by new or expanded businesses. If the roads, sewer and water utilities are made available, these improvements would be paid for with those diverted tax monies.

TIFA is a method for providing necessary improvements needed by business without cost to the residents of the City of Romulus, according to the mayor.

The first step in this process is to create a Tax Increment Finance Authority and to indicate the boundaries in which the authority can operate. The authority's boundaries generally include the commercial and industrial section of the city. According to City Planner Dennis Meagher, "to the extent possible, residential areas have not been included because the types of projects necessary would not take place in a residential area."

After the creation of the authority and designation of the operating area, the Authority may create a district within that area for future public improvements. A development plan is prepared which indicates the specific improvements, the cost and the time frame under which they are going to be constructed.

Money for these improvements is generated by the taxes from the new development.

They all came out for Applefest!

While the wet weather may have put a damper on day two of Huron Township's Applefest, Saturday's sunny skies brought out people by the proverbial bushel.

There was everything booths to buy food (apple pie, apple fritters, etc.), booths to play games, stands to buy handcrafted items, and much, much more. Including people — tens of thousands of them — of all sizes, shapes and ages. Smiles were running rampant, especially as the largest-and-best-parade in this area wound its way up and down the streets of New Boston. A stroll through the crowd showed, among other things, 2-year-old Danika Sancho trying hard to come to grips with a sno-cone, while perhaps the youngest police reserve on duty at Applefest, three-year-old Derek Lehecka, keeps an eye on things. If the hat fits . . .

County establishes job training, referral centers

Wayne County Executive William Lucas has announced the start of a new Job Training Information and Referral System, operated by the Wayne County Private Industry Council (PIC). Five centers throughout the county will advise qualified residents of job opportunities available through occupational training, industry based training, on-the-job training and job placement assistance offered by the Federal Job Training Partnership Act (JPTA).

Excluded from the network are Detroit and Downriver communities, which operate their own programs.

Lucas said: "Each center has trained, professional personnel to explain JTPA requirements and describe the individual job training programs. A job counselor is available to assist unemployed applicants with questions and applications."

Lucas added that the five centers also provide services to employers.

"I encourage area employers to also call the nearest center for information regarding tax credits, on-the-job training, industry based training and other economic development incentives designed to encourage the employment of trained and pre-screened workers," he said.

Wayne County PIC Director Barry Hawthorne noted that job seekers and employers can call the PIC centers Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.

"We feel this innovative new program will allow us to effectively match willing and qualified workers with employers' needs," Hawthorne said. "We also provide referral assistance to laid off auto workers."

Local job training centers can be found at the Wayne County Cooperative Extension Service, 5454 Venoy Road, Wayne (721-6578); the Western Wayne Career Center at Renton Junior High School, 31573 W. Huron River Dr. m New Boston (753-4405); and Schoolcraft Community College, Career Planning and Placement Center, 18600 Haggerty Road, Room W-169, Livonia (591-6400, ext. 372).

Information and referral services for unemployed workers living in Detroit and the Downriver communities can be obtained by calling 898-2780 (Detroit) or 283-9700 (Downriver).

club notes

Sign up now to donate blood

Monday, Oct. 29, is an important date for all of us! It signals the Annual Blood Drive in the Belleville-Van Buren Community, which will be held at the Belleville High School Auditorium.

Once again, the Belleville Business and Professional Women's Club is joining the Red Cross in an effort to help meet the blood needs of the community by sponsoring a bloodmobile visit from 2 to 7:45 p.m.

According to a club spokesperson, the goal of the sponsors — at least 200 pints — can be easily met, if everyone takes just an hour of time to donate. The importance of donations cannot be stressed often enough.

"Blood is a lifesaving substance available only through our donations", she said. "Please help provide an adequate supply for those who might need it in this area. Sign up now to give!"

Past donors will be called for appointments and later sent postal cards as reminders.

New donors are always needed. To volunteer, call 483-4562.

Club sponsors fun road rally

Are you looking for a good way to spend a Sunday afternoon? One that won't cost much money, includes the whole family, and is good, clean fun?

Well, consider the "Town and Country Pumpkin Run" — road rally and color tour, being held Sunday, Oct. 14, beginning at 9:30 a.m. at Belleville High School.

The Pumpkin Run is open to any licensed driver, in any type vehicle, but each car must contain at least two people — one to drive and one to "navigate." Following a set of printed directions, you will work your way through three counties, on paved country roads, answering questions found along the rally route.

The rally course has been devised to be fun for beginners and a challenge to experts.

All proceeds from the event, sponsored by the GFWC Belleville Area Intermediate Study Club, will be donated to the Robbe Farm Restoration Project.

Any persons who want more information are urged to contact Cathy Horste at 699-7968.

The entrance fee is $5 per car.

Present: Supervisor Reeves, Clerk Banotai and Trustees: Morgan and Huziak

Late: Treasurer Hoffman and Trustee Humphreys

Absent: Trustee Bevins, excused

Also present: Planning Consultant Phil Wargelin, Secretary Newburn and 4 interested citizens.

Motion by Banotai, supported by Morgan to accept the agenda. Motion carried unanimously.

Agenda

1. Pledge
  2. Roll Call
  3. Approval of Agenda
  4. Award Feasibility Study on the Sumpter Board
  5. Adjournment
4. Motion by Morgan, to award Feasibility Study to CRW & Associates. Motion failed, no support.
- Trustee Humphreys stated that he had talked to Dr. Peets and that he said that no land would go with the School. Stated that the School Board still wanted Sumpter Township to get the School and the land. But could not get a clarification as to what they meant on the land. Trustee Morgan felt that the Township's main concern was for a facility. Felt Township should still pursue the building.
- Hoffman arrived at 4:17 P.M.
- Trustee Humphreys felt that the land was needed to get Federal aid. Stated that he was supposed to get a letter from Van Buren School Board concerning the land. Supervisor Reeves suggested that we move very carefully on this issue.
- Trustee Morgan questioned the Board why not just the Building without the land.
- Supervisor Reeves stated that the building was a liability.
- Trustee Humphreys stated that the Van Buren Schools has let out bids on the demolition of the building.
- Supervisor Reeves asked Phil Wargelin of CRW & Associates if he could wait pending the information on the land.
- Clerk Banotai felt that the Building was not worth the time. Too costly.
- Trustee Humphreys stated that he felt we needed the land to acquire federal grants. With the land it would enhance our chances. Trustee Morgan stated the need for just the School itself.
- Discussion followed.
- Motion by Morgan, supported by Hoffman to award CRW & Associates the Feasibility Study on the Sumpter School, to not exceed $4997.00, pending the clarification on whether the land would be in the package.
- J. Stalmack asked to speak before the motion was voted on. Stated that she had talked to Mr. Hosmer about the demolition cost. She said Mr. Hosmer had said the cost would be about 50 thousand dollars. She questioned the fact that the Township Board did not know if we could even get a federal grant. Questioned the fact that if the Township had no money would they tax the people. She felt that this would be a hardship on the tax payer.
- Trustee Morgan stated that we would not tax the people on this issue. Asked Clerk Banotai if he had any alternative methods for indoor recreation.
- Clerk Banotai stated the need for maintenance and the cost.
- Trustee Huziak stated the need for insurance and the cost of the insurance.
- Supervisor Reeves questioned Phil Wargelin of CRW & Associates about funding.
- Humphreys questioned the fact that he thought that community type grants were top priority on grants.
- Supervisor Reeves said that there is not many grants out there to get. Money was tight.
- P. Quinley questioned if there was any heat in the building or any asbestos in the School. Said that it was too costly to replace.
- Trustee Morgan asked for any alternative methods on acquiring the School. Discussion followed.
- Motion by Morgan, supported by Hoffman to award CRW & Associates the Feasibility Study on the Sumpter School, not to exceed $4997.00 pending that we can acquire the land at no cost.
- Roll Call Vote: Reeves, Banotai and Huziak - Naye Humphreys, Morgan and Hoffman - Aye

Motion failed.

Supervisor Reeves asked Trustee Humphreys about written notice on the clarification of the land.

J. Oddy stated she had talked to Dr. Peets about the land. Did not understand why this issue had taken so long.

Discussion followed.

Supervisor Reeves stated that we 1st needed to find out what the School Board meant by "the School and the land".

Motion by Humphreys, supported by Banotai to adjourn. Meeting adjourned at 4:52 P.M.

Respectfully submitted,
Louis P. Banotai, Clerk

HURON SCHOOL DISTRICT REPORT FOR PUBLICATION June 30, 1984
Board of Education Huron School District New Boston, Michigan 48164 We have examined the Comparative Balance Sheet of Huron School District as of June 30, 1984 and 1983 and the related Statements of Revenue and Expenditures and Changes in Reserves and Fund Balances for the years then ended. Our examinations were made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and, accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. The School District has not maintained a record of its general fixed assets and, accordingly, a statement of general fixed assets, required by generally accepted accounting principles, is not included in these financial statements. The State of Michigan Department of Education requires that school buses be included as a capital asset of the General Fund to be depreciated over seven years and any notes payable for the purchase of school buses be reflected as an obligation of the General Fund. This is an exception to generally accepted accounting principles for local governmental units, which provides that school buses, along with all other general fixed assets, be included in the general fixed asset group of accounts and that the related notes payable, along with all other long-term debt, be included in the long-term debt group of accounts. In our opinion, except for the departure from generally accepted accounting principles as stated above, the accompanying Comparative Balance Sheet, Statements of Revenue and Expenditures, and Changes in Reserves and Fund Balances present fairly the financial position of the Huron School District, as of June 30, 1984 and 1983 and the results of its operations for the years then ended in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year. Hungford, Cooper, Lusk &amp; Co. August 15, 1984

The Detroit Tigers are not the only winners in town these days. Students in the Van Buren, Plymouth-Canton and Cherry Hill School Districts also emerged victorious last week, compliments of an understanding electorate.

Approval of millage issues in Van Buren and Plymouth-Canton should allow these districts to maintain a well-rounded educational program without the need of cutbacks in curriculum or extra-curricular activities. In the Cherry Hill District some 2,000 students will become members of the Wayne-Westland Community Schools in February of 1985 as a result of an annexation/transfer plan ratified overwhelmingly last Thursday.

We see each of these decisions as positive developments on the local educational scene.

Voters in the Van Buren District approved a millage increase for the first time since 1978 after several attempts to raise the levy had failed. The sixth hour of the school day and a wide range of programs are to be restored.

In Plymouth-Canton, area voters helped avert personnel and program cuts by adding a 1.74 mill hike to the tax rolls. Officials had estimated a $1.5 million deficit by 1986 without the millage approval.

Cherry Hill voters provided a number of benefits for their students by ratifying a merger with the Wayne-Westland schools: 100 additional class offerings, expanded special education programs for the handicapped, additional preschool and adult programs and more vocational technical training.

It should be noted that the millage issues required, and received, community-wide support. Citizens in both the Van Buren and Plymouth Canton Districts banded together to educate the voters on the importance of a viable, expanding school system. In Van Buren the local Chamber of Commerce endorsed the project, no doubt a shot in the arm to the pro-millage forces.

Administrators in the Wayne-Westland and Cherry Hill Districts also must be commended for successfully informing residents on the plusses of a complex annexation/transfer program. Judging by the overwhelming voter support of the project, administrators and backers got the message across through public hearings, an effective media campaign and several meetings.

Now the responsibility of moving forward rests with the administrators, teachers, parents and all school personnel in these districts. The voters have done their part — now they will expect results and we encourage citizens to stay in touch with the public education system in their community to ensure that public monies are spent wisely.

Use and abuse

Power.

It is used every day, all around us in ways that affect and transform our lives. Sometimes those are positive, worthwhile uses, enabling people to "get things done." But power is used as well for Machivellian and evil purposes. Many times, those who would have themselves perceived as "good" do, in fact, use and abuse power for personal, selfish and impure motives.

If we cannot subscribe to the conviction that "good" will eventually triumph against "evil," then life certainly seems less worth living. The reality with which we must deal is that for substantial periods of time, the "dark side" can prevail in a society, a group or even within an individual.

Germany exterminated millions before "good" and "right" triumphed. Victims of such despicable barbarism and injustice may be right, but are no longer on this earth as a consequence of the acts of those who are wrong.

ments scramble and nearly trample one another in order to "get the story."

Our industry seems to have become smarter through the years, and a bit more sophisticated regarding being used in this manner by manipulative politicians or their workers, but there are days when I really wonder how far we've actually come.

In an effort to grab a headline, I've seen reporters submit stories and editors approve them without the kind of thorough documentation and investigation they require. It happens.

I have also observed pure-hearted reporters being duped by those wishing to employ the power of the press for impure purposes. It happens a lot. This is no great revelation to most. Recall if you will Kurt Luidtke's story, "Absence of Malice."

We are learning more now of the extent of the mafia use and abuse of power in Sicily and America as a result of the current massive crackdown by the governments of these two countries in relation to organized crime.

But often, it is difficult to detect which of the players in a given situation signifies what really is good and just and what is not. Wars, throughout history, have been fought with both sides praying to God for victory in the name of all that is right and holy.

We are approaching election times and the power plays in the political arena are in bloom. Candidates often attempt to collect "dirt" of some sort about their opponents and dump it into the media in a manner to sufficiently confuse the electorate and to cost their competitor enough votes to affect the final outcome of the election.

Occasionally newspapers, through editors and publishers, willingly or unwillingly become pawns in this game. When a juicy morsel is thrown in the fray, news depart-

And yet, I see the many positive ends that result from certain stories being publicized by the media. There have been pleas for aid for the needed, calls for well-deserved recognition, warnings of public perils, unfolding investigations into criminal acts and, in the instances of the infamous PBB contaminations and illegal dumpings of toxic wastes, a genuine protection of the public health.

But misused power and influence can too often affect the outcome of an election or an issue. To be sure, it doesn't take effect exclusively at election time.

Examples? How about the Canton Township police corporals threatened lawsuit regarding a statement and story about payroll funds? Merely protecting their reputations, perhaps.

How about a story, broken just before the election concerning the campaign finances taken from a candidate's personal funds? A

LeDuc responds

To the Editor

In a continued quest for honest and fairness I must take issue with a letter appearing in your paper last week from Lyda Lyons. Ms. Lyons is categorically wrong when she says that I was "negotiating" with the First Presbyterian Church of Baytown, Texas prior to my re-election this past June.

I did have an initial contact with the church prior to the election which appeared at that point an inquiry. That's hardly negotiations. About the only sound and factual portion of Ms. Lyons letter is her quote of me from the Meet the Candidates Night when I did, in all candor and truth state: "No job has been offered and none taken."

My opinion is that the rumors during the campaign about my leaving (purportedly to take a position with former Wayne-Westland Superintendent Timothy Dyer in Phoenix) were a desperate attempt by political opponents to discredit my candidacy. It didn't work and the voters elected Mrs. Chorbagan and me by comfortable margins.

Considering the campaign issues, it seems ludicrous for Ms. Lyons to suggest Rose Mary Miller as an appropriate replacement. In my opinion such an appointment would fail to give proper consideration to the pro-education and pro-kid voters who elected me. Such a move would serve only to widen the division on the Board of Education.

I suggest that the Board seek a new and moderate voice to fill my seat. Choosing a person with such characteristics would be a positive step toward bringing harmony to Wayne-Westland.

Shaft in Canton?

To the Editor:

How can the Board and Supervisor Poole consent to paving side streets, after telling large groups of people last year that Haggerty Road between Cherry Hill and Palmer would be the next project considered.

Haggerty would benefit the most people, school bus drivers, and school children. I have attended quite a few meetings and have seen a lot of cars wrecked on Haggerty. I'd like to see our board members and Poole travel our road everyday. They gave us the shaft.

Discrimination?

To the Editor:

Although a tolerater of abortion and other liberal aberrations, Geraldine Ferraro is fast getting wide publicity as a Catholic. However, how many Catholics are aware — even after four years of presidency — that Ronald Reagan's father was a Catholic who practiced civil rights long before it became a law? Why the discrimination? Herein is the story released by the presidential candidate and published by the Michigan Republican Party's Majority News of August in 1980:

"My father, John Edward Reagan, believed literally that all men are created equal and that man's own ambition determined what happened to him afterwards. He put his principles into practice in the dark depression years when he was trying to earn a living buck on the road as a shoe salesman. When he checked into a small town hotel, the clerk said: 'Fine', while reversing the register and reading out his name. 'You will like it here, Mr. Reagan. We don't permit a Jew in the place.' My father furiously shouted back: 'I am a Catholic! If it's come to the point where you won't take a Jew, you won't take me either.' My father picked up his suitcase and left. Since it was the only hotel in town, he spent the night in his car in the snow." The question arises: What have Catholics and non-Catholics done to return this courtesy?

In the meantime, during the Career Administration, about a dozen Protestant ministers asked President Carter why he had not appointed any orthodox Christians to his cabinet, judgeship, or a high level government agency. Jimmy responded: "I have several religious people in my administration. Vice-president Walter (Fritz) Mondale is a very religious man who came from a very religious family. His father was a minister with his grandfather and brother also ministers." The preachers became aghast inasmuch as Jimmy failed to admit that Mondale is a self-acknowledged humanist; that his father was a liberal minister with strong humanist beliefs and that his brother, Lester, is a Unitarian minister who signed the atheistic Humanist Manifesto.

Sen. Carl Levin's blasts in campaign against Jack Louma is simply a coverup of Levin's deceptive voting record in Congress.

Teachers are 'busy'

To the Editor:

Your article, "Thank You Teachers," in the September 5, 1984 edition of the Eagle was excellent. You must be a former teacher, be married to a teacher or know many teachers in order to have the insight to write such an article.

I'm married to a truly "busy" teacher. It is nice to see "busy" teachers get some of the recognition they deserve. Most people are too busy to notice. Thanks!

Irresponsible proposal

To the Editor

Proposal C will be on the November ballot. It will ask for a public vote on every tax increase and roll taxes back to the 1981 levels.

Besides being irresponsible, it would have a devastating effect on our State because:

- 1) Industry will be put on to carry extra tax burdens resulting in more businesses leaving the State with ultimate loss of jobs.
- 2) Local communities will have to raise sufficient monies to keep schools open and pay for all of the additional elections needed to accept or veto new taxes.
- 3) Michigan will lose national credibility especially in Financial Institutions and Higher Education.
- 4) Potential decrease in State Police Protection.
- 5) Loss of adequate judicial and prison systems.

Consider that since extra elections often bring out less than 30 percent of the public, we, the citizens, would be giving to a minority, greater control over the State affairs than presently elected officials who can be recalled or voted out of office.

Elected representatives could

Proposal B supported

By JOHN F. GREENSLIT
Special to ANP

(Greenslit is the executive director of the Michigan Recreation and Park Association.)

Election Day, November 6, will bring Michigan voters a unique opportunity to enhance its image as the nation's greatest recreation and tourism based state.

Proposal "B" will create, by Constitutional Amendment, the Recreation Land Trust Fund. It will extend the current Michigan Land Trust Fund passed in 1978, into a perpetual program to utilize oil and gas revenues for recreation purposes.

Passage of Proposal "B" will prohibit legislative and administrative transfers and raids for unrelated purposes. This technique saw $6 million diverted to replace double bottom tankers in 1979, as well as two budget balancing transfers in 1980 and 1981 of $72.2 million. The latter transfer virtually devastated the fund.

Adoption by the voters would leave the fund intact for its original purposes, as authored by former State Sen. Kerry Kammer. It caps the fund at $200 million, an increase of $50 million, with the balance going into the general fund.

The Act is further strengthened by permitting funds to be used, not more than 25 percent, for orderly public recreation development in addition to the acquisition of public recreation lands. The bill, adopted by over 2/3 of the House and Senate, was a House Joint Resolution, "M", authored by Rep. Jerry Bartnik of Temperance and

Sen. Paul Henry of Grand Rapids.

There are many implications reflected in endorsements of environmental groups, conservation and preservation interests, the Michigan Chamber of Commerce, governmental organizations representing townships, counties and municipalities, private interests, citizen groups, labor and public service organizations.

A successful vote sets into motion extensive public and private ventures on the recruitment of tourists and the retention of Michigan residents to enjoy the most outstanding recreational waters, lands and programs in the nation.

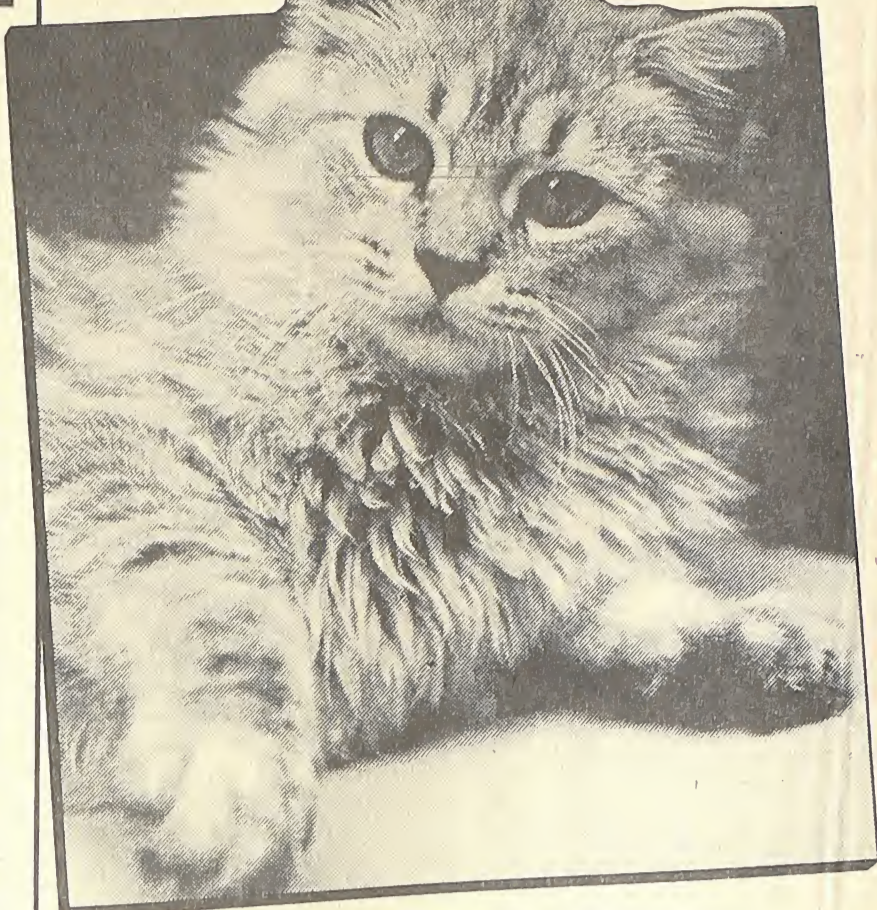

The coalition of support has recognized the potential spin-off of additional job opportunities as full utilization of the natural resources is maximized without endangering any of its fragile components.

A recent Department of Natural Resources spokesman indicated that over 90 percent of tourism and daily recreation takes place on public lands and waters in Michigan. The dependence of small business on the daily and seasonal enjoyment of those resources can only be enhanced.

This issue, fully supported by the Michigan Recreation and Park Association, will lessen the dependence of Michigan on industry and agriculture for economic stability. The extremely unique bi-partisan support in the Legislature moved the issue to the ballot with minimal opposition.

The final step is voters' acceptance on November 6. A vote "Yes on B" will be, in my opinion, a vote "Yes on Michigan". I ask for your "Yes" vote.

Happy ending . . .

Michigan Humane Society employees report that Ginger, a 4½-month-old puppy who had undergone surgery to correct a birth defect, has found a new home as a result of an Associated Newspapers' story last month. During her recovery, Ginger had been fostered by MHS employees, who discovered her love for other dogs, cats and children. Now surrounded by all three, Ginger was adopted by a Wayne family who read the story and then welcomed the puppy into their home.

non-story, but one which the media piranhas attacked like live bait scrambling so that the competition would not get one up on them. The outcome could have been disastrous to the reputation of a dedicated public servant.

Last week the mayor of Belleville died, after a reported exchange of words regarding issues interpreted by some as a power struggle. Councils and mayors war daily regarding pending matters, and such conflicts take place not only locally, but in Washington, D.C. to be sure.

I sat in a hearing room two weeks ago in Washington listening to Congressman Bill Ford and the postal committee being pressured or perhaps "influenced" regarding postal appropriations.

It is difficult at best in many of these issues to discern right from wrong, good from evil or use of power versus the abuse of power.

Many would prefer that we, in the media, print only the high school scores and pictures of the latest young man to achieve the rank of Eagle Scout (nothing against either of those topics, I assure you). But with a trained eye we endeavor to sort through the facts, figures, quotes and sensational muck delivered up to us by those of pure purpose as well as those with larceny or malice in their hearts.

We strive for truth, light and justice. Freedom has its price, and the use and abuse of power seems to be part of it. We tread softly where the risk of being wrong is too great. Not because of the threat of any ramifications to us, but we understand that lives can be damaged or adversely affected needlessly.

We work to do our job to inform, and at times, I admit, to persuade, but always with the sincere belief that what we urge or report is for the betterment of the communities we serve.

We expect no unanimous concurrence that we do as well as we should — or that we call the shots with 100 percent accuracy all the time.

We only ask that you defend our right to speak as we defend yours.
See you next week.

First Step battles domestic violence

October 8 through 14 has been designated as Domestic Violence Awareness Week to call attention to the often hidden problem which occurs in one in every three homes in Michigan. Nationally, every 60 seconds some woman is beaten by a husband or boyfriend.

Domestic violence is a learned behavior and it is estimated that more than 80 percent of abusive males, and over 30 percent of abused females grew up in violent households. Today, in one-half of the homes in which women are beaten, the children also are physically abused.

"Spouse abuse is a serious problem and one which is often covered up by its very victims, whether because of embarrassment or even fearing for their own safety," according to Jane Dewey, Executive Director of First Step. "Our intent with this special week is to focus attention on this important issue, and to escalate efforts to resolve it."

First Step is a local agency providing services to victims of domestic violence in the Western Wayne County and Downriver communities.

The services of First Step include a 24-hour crisis line, emergency shelter, individual counseling and support groups. These services are utilized by the residents of the 34 communities in First Step's service area. Each month First Step staff and volunteers handle as many as 100 crisis calls, provide shelter to at least 20 families, provide in-person counseling to over 40 individuals and hold weekly support groups of at least 30 women, Dewey reported.

"We feel that there are still many more families out there who need our help," Dewey added. "Our goal for Domestic Violence Week is not only to increase the public's awareness and understanding of domestic violence, but to also inform victims, their families and friends about the services available to them."

Anyone who may want help or more information from First Step can contact the agency 24 hours a day at 525-2230.

Detrimental cuts

To the Editor:

I'm the Activity Director at the Wayne Convalescent Center.

The Center houses senior adults, who participate in the Wayne-Westland Adult Education program. What I have witnessed is that this program is a necessity to the existence of their daily living. I have seen progress that makes them feel worthwhile. They actually get excited about their grades.

I'm of the understanding that the State Board of Education will be making cuts in this Educational Program for the seniors and the infirmed. I feel it would be detrimental to help them — when people quit learning they die.

What can we as interested parties do to prevent this?

Truck use offered in Inkster

The City of Inkster has the re-instituted its Adopt-A-Truck program, offered this year from Oct. 8 to Nov. 2.

The program was designed to provide area residents with the opportunity to reserve a city truck for a weekend or overnight period. Trucks may be used to discard unwanted items or yard refuse such as tree limbs, paper, grass trimmings, clothing, small appliances and small automobile parts.

Neighborhood groups are encouraged to join and collectively request the use of a truck, although the program is also available to individuals.

To apply for the Adopt-A-Truck program, or to learn more about the service, contact the Inkster Department of Public Service at 565-4100, ext. 241 between 8:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Henry

The music for the wedding was performed by Susan Stahl, with soloist Toni Simonds singing "Through the Eyes of Love" and "The Wedding Song." The bride and groom together sang "Our Love in Christ." The bride is the daughter of David and Sandra Fields of Belleville, while the groom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. James Henry of Mobile, Ala. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a dacron polyester chiffon gown, with a Queen Anne Collar trimmed with alencon lace, a sweetheart cut bodice with a natural fitted waist trimmed with alencon lace and scattered pearl clusters. The sheer long sleeves were accented with cuffs trimmed in Chantilly lace. The cathedral train was of cascading layers of embroidered Chantilly lace and crystal pleated ruffles. A headpiece, accented with sequences of pearls, held her fingertip lace veil, and her bouquet was of miniature white carnations, with dusty rose carnations and baby's breath.

The bride asked her best friend, Susan Prohaska of Belleville, to serve as her maid of honor. She wore a floor-length polyester taffeta gown in a frost rose shade, with spaghetti straps, a princess cut bodice and A-line skirt. Her matching jacket had a Queen Anne ruffled collar with short puff-pleated sleeves. She wore a gardenia in her hair and carried a bouquet of miniature white daisies, miniature dusty rose carnations and baby's breath.

Serving as bridesmaid was Toni Simonds, a best friend of the bride, of Belleville. Her outfit matched that of the honor attendant. Ringbearer for the ceremony was Christopher Cabana, 7, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cabana of Pinckney, Mich. The flower girl was Ashley Agerson, 5, the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Kirk Agerson of Grand Rapids. She wore a white floor-length dress similar to the bride's gown. A ring of baby's breath served as her headpiece, and she carried a basket filled with rose petals.

The groom asked his best friend, Eric Brown of Belleville, to serve as best man. The ushers were Jeff Schmidt of Belleville, a friend, and Donald Wilson of Ypsilanti and William Thompson of Belleville, uncles of the bride.

Mrs. Fields chose a rose-colored floor-length crepe dress for the double ring ceremony. Her corsage was of miniature carnations and miniature dusty rose-colored roses.

Mrs. Henry wore a burgundy floor-length crepe dress. Her corsage was also of miniature carnations and dusty rose-colored roses.

A reception for the newlyweds and their 85 guests was held at Weber's Inn in Ann Arbor. The rehearsal dinner, hosted by the bride's parents, was held at the Chicago Road House in Dearborn. Following a one-week honeymoon in Grayling, Mich., the couple took up residence in Belleville.

The new Mrs. Henry attended Belleville High School and Cleary College. She is employed at Mott's Children's Hospital in Ann Arbor by the University of Michigan. Her husband also attended Belleville High School and studied at Eastern Michigan University in Ypsilanti. He is employed by Comerica Bank in Ann Arbor.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart McLeod of Westland have announced the engagement of their daughter, Becky, to Mark J. Wilson, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wilson, also of Westland. The bride-elect attended Central Michigan University for two years and currently is employed as a dental assistant in Dearborn.

Her fiance attended Northwood Institute in Midland, where he received his bachelor of business administration degree. He currently is employed by the Firestone Tire & Rubber Co. The couple are both graduates of Westland John Glenn High School. A Feb. 26, 1985, wedding date has been set.

Robbins—Sullivan wed

Donna Marie Robbins and Richard Charles Sullivan, Jr. exchanged marital vows at the Unitarian Church of Farmington Aug. 18.

Rev. J. Windsor officiated at the early-afternoon, double-ring ceremony. The church was decorated with banks of flowers and an altar spray of pink gladiolas and pink carnations accented with white daisies and tiny white mums.

Music at the ceremony included a piano accompaniment to "Perhaps Love," "Sunrise, Sunset," and "The Wedding Song," which was played after the exchange of rings.

For her wedding, the bride chose a gown of satin and organdy with bell sleeves, which featured silk lilies of the valley and roses as adornments. The bodice of her floor-length gown was accented with bead work on the bodice and the border of her train. Her veil was held in place at the rear of a brimmed hat. She carried a bouquet of pink roses, white mums and daisies.

Maid of honor at the wedding was Sandra Kaye Lang of Kalamazoo. Her gown was of pink-bordered eyelet with a high collar and elbow length puffed sleeves.

Bridesmaids included Pamela West, a sister of the bride, Lynn Kurzava and Halina Harding. They were gowned in the same style as the maid of honor and carried bouquets identical to hers but with pink ribbon streamers. The floral arrangements featured pink roses, white daisies, mums and baby's breath accented with ribbons.

Assuming the duties of best man at the ceremony was Terry Figuerelle. Brothers of the groom Steve and Brian Sullivan acted as ushers and groomsmen, along with Dave Leary.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sullivan

Following the exchange of their marital vows, the couple was honored at a reception at Behnan Hall in Southfield. The facility was decorated with glass bowls holding flowers as centerpieces on the tables along with candles.

The couple spent their honeymoon in Florida.

The bride is the daughter of Cleston and Pauline Robbins of Steiber in Westland and the groom is the son of Donna Sullivan of Pontiac.

The new Mrs. Sullivan is a 1983 graduate of Oakland University and is employed as a computer programmer at General Motors Technical Center in Warren.

The groom is a 1983 graduate of Oakland University and works as a computer programmer at Epcorn Corp. in Troy.

Designer showcase set

The fashion designs of Dearborn's Katherine Peterson will be featured at a Michigan Designer Showcase Luncheon, sponsored by the YWCA of Western Wayne County, on Wednesday, Nov. 14, at Fairlane Manor in Dearborn.

There will be a cash bar at 11:30 a.m. followed by the luncheon and fashions at noon. Tickets are $16 or $25 for patrons. Patrons' names will be listed in the program, with contributions tax deductible.

Peterson was the first-place winner of the "Discover a Michigan Designer" contest conducted by the Detroit Free Press this year. She won an honorable mention in the first Free Press contest in 1983. Her 1983 entry, an ivory linen sheath and hand painted belt, was the first garment she ever designed and sewed herself.

This year's entry, which won Peterson the top prize, is a coordinated ensemble composed of a creamy gabardine duster with rows of topstitching over a hand-knitted vest, cotton skirt and striped blouse.

Besides her designs, also to be shown at the luncheon will be the fashions of other Michigan designers—Ronald Blakeley, Juli Chervon, Chris Triola, Maria Edgar, Tim Kurtz, Mary Musinski and Will Williams Jr. Free Press fashion writer, Donna Britt-Gibson, will commentate.

"It's a real plus for Dearborn and Michigan to consider our own designers first," remarked Melanie Harvey, chairman of the luncheon. "Paula Blanchard, Michigan's First Lady, is our honorary chairman," Harvey added. "She hopes to attend."

For reservations to the showcase luncheon, send a check, made payable to the YWCA of Western Wayne County, 26279 Michigan Ave., Inkster 48141. Be sure to enclose a self-addressed envelope. Tables of 10 will be available, all requests to be seated with friends can be filled if all names are submitted together.

A special vegetarian plate will be available, if notification is made in advance. Also a free nursery for children one year and older will be provided at the YWCA from 11 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Nov. 14 by advance registration.

To the victors

It wasn't like winning an LPGA tournament, but it was the next best thing for members of the 1984 Romulus Women's Golf League. Action on the green was so stiff, that at the end of the season there was a tie for first place. Presenting trophies to the two top lady golfers recently was Debra Dick (center), Romulus Parks and Recreation director. Accepting the well earned trophies were Bea Tear (from left), Marce Hampton, Barb Danna and Doloris Newell.

Psychiatrists seek changes in mental health system

Michigan's mental health services are in disarray and major policy changes are essential to meet the needs of the state's mentally ill. That is among the conclusion of a year-long study conducted by the Michigan Psychiatric Society (MPS), which was released recently.

The study findings have been provided to the Blanchard administration and the legislature as a first step in the MPS campaign for changes in the state's mental health policies and priorities.

"Our goal is to help rebuild the state mental health system to provide better quality care and more complete services for the mentally ill," said Melvin Bornstein, M.D., president of the 900-member society.

"We cannot solve all the problems in the system overnight, but there is an urgent need to begin to address these problems.

"We are committed to working toward finding solutions over the next five years.

Dr. Bornstein said that Michigan, like other states, has been striving to cut costs by transferring patients from mental hospitals to community settings.

While the general population in Michigan has grown by 1.4 million since 1960, during the same period the population of state mental hospitals has been reduced by nearly 80 percent — from more than 19,000 patients in 1960 to about 4,000 currently.

Despite this dramatic shift of patients out of hospitals and into the community, there has not been sufficient funding allocated to meet the increased need for community mental health services.

"We believe the state and local governments must place top priority on making available adequately supervised in-patient programs for the long-term care of the chronically mentally ill, many of whom now wander the streets as homeless people," Dr. Bornstein said.

Free trees available for planting

Ten free flowering trees will be given to people who join the National Arbor Day Foundation during October 1984.

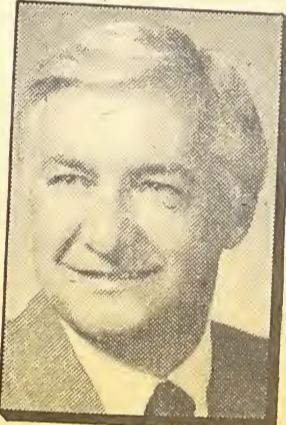

The Foundation will give two White Dogwood, two American Redbud, two European Mountain Ash, two Washington Hawthorn and two Flowering Crab trees to members joining during October. The free trees are part of the foundation's efforts to improve the quality of life in America by encouraging tree planting.

"The foundation is encouraging more people to plant trees in the fall, which is an excellent time for tree planting," John Rosenow, the foundation's executive director, said. "So we're giving these free flowering trees to people who make a $10 membership contribution during October.

"These trees were selected because they will give a colorful flowering of pink, white, and red blossoms throughout the spring," Rosenow added. "The 6-to-12 inch trees will be sent postpaid at the right time for planting between Oct. 15 and Dec. 10, with enclosed planting instructions. The trees are guaranteed to grow, or we will replace them free of charge."

To become a member of the foundation and to receive the free trees, a $10 membership contribution should be sent to Flowering Trees, National Arbor Day Foundation, 100 Arbor Avenue, Nebraska City, NE 68410, by Oct. 31, 1984.

Students can study overseas

"Qualified high school students are offered a unique opportunity to spend an academic year or six-week summer holiday in Sweden, Denmark, Norway, Finland, Iceland, Germany, Switzerland, or Great Britain as part of the ASSE International (ASSE) Student Exchange Program," announced Warren Clague, Midwestern Director of ASSE.

"Until a few years ago, only a fortunate few could afford to spend a school year or summer in Europe. Now, ASSE has changed all that."

Students, 15 to 18 years old, are selected on the basis of a good academic record, excellent character references, and a genuine desire to experience life abroad with a volunteer European host family.

"At least one member of the carefully-screened host family will be fluent in English," added Clague, "so that communication will not be a problem." Year students are provided language/culture instruction as part of the ASSE program.

The non-profit ASSE International (formerly American Scandinavian Student Exchange) is affiliated with the Swedish and Finnish Departments of Education and has been officially designated by the U.S. Information Agency as an Exchange Visitor Program.

Local students interested in receiving more information can contact Carol and Jack Mefford, 36810 Almont Drive, Sterling Heights, 48077.

Cider mills remain part of local fall scene in Michigan

Sipping newly pressed cider and munching freshly made doughnuts are as much a part of the fall scene in Michigan as football games, brightly colored leaves and Indian summer, according to the Automobile Club of Michigan.

"There is no greater pleasure in the fall than taking the family to a cider mill to watch ripe apples being squeezed into a delicious juice and then sampling the finished product," said Auto Club Travel Operations Manager Jim Drury. "Michigan's apple crop this year is bigger and better than last year and prices for cider and doughnuts are only slightly above last fall."

The U.S. Department of Agriculture predicts that 19 million bushels of Michigan apples will be picked this year compared to last year's 18 million bushels.

"Jonathan, Northern Spy, Red Delicious, McIntosh and Ida Red apples should be larger and of better quality than last year's crop because of a better growing season," Drury pointed out. A gallon of cider averages $2.37 per gallon and ranges from $1.30 to $5. A dozen doughnuts averages $2.29, with costs running from $1.85 to $3.

Many facilities also offer such activities as wagon and train rides, puppet shows, petting animal zoos and candle dipping.

While most mills allow customers to view pressing operations and many provide tours and demonstrations, the Auto Club suggest that visitors interested in special activities would be wise to call ahead for pressing dates and times.

Local cider mills in operation this season include:

Kingston Trio will play at Huron High

The Kingston Trio will appear in concert at 8 p.m. October 19 at New Boston Huron High School, presented by the Huron Civic Theatre.

The Trio started performing in 1957, when three college students began singing in San Francisco's coffee houses. They sang about life in America, combining the influences of country music, bluegrass, calypso and pop. Their three-part harmony, memorable melodies and enjoyment of what they were doing earned them a large following, and sold millions of records.

Now, more than twenty-five years later, although two of the original members have left the group, the Trio style is preserved by Bob Shane, Roger Gambill and George Grove.

Says founding member Bob Shane, "Our primary aim is to entertain, and always has been. We have fun performing for people."

Also on the program will be two local groups, Joe Prater and the Huron Valley Boys and David Walz and The Rising Star.

Tickets for the concert are $10. For more information and ticket reservations, call 782-1505.

Audience joins in performance at Ford Museum

Jury duty will come for 12 people chosen from the audience for each performance of "The Night of January 16th," the play running at Henry Ford Museum Theater at 8:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday evenings, through Nov. 10.

A famous murder trial of the Superior Court of the State of New York was dramatized for the stage by Ayn Rand, noted novelist and screenwriter. Her books include "The Fountainhead," which became a movie, and "Atlas Shrugged."

Rand's "The Night of January 16th" portrays American court procedure as the trial attempts to resolve the evidence in the alleged murder of a young tycoon who plummeted to his death from atop his own building. The accused is a striking, self-assured young businesswoman whose complicated professional and personal relationship with the victim suggests many motives for his murder. A cast of colorful witnesses adds to the courtroom intrigue.

Since the case is tried by using a different jury selected from the audience at each performance, guilt or innocence remains an open question every night of the play. This provides the excitement of an unrehearsed verdict. To accommodate either possibility, alternate endings were written into the script.

The entire play is presented in a court setting facing the audience, with the audience jury seated onstage with the players.

"The Night of January 16th" became one of America's most popular plays after its opening at New York's Ambassador Theatre in 1935. The approach of involving the playgoer in the proceedings for an unpredictable ending has kept the drama fresh ever since.

Tickets are $5 each and are available daily at the entrance to Greenfield Village or at the Museum Theater box office one hour prior to each performance. All seats are reserved.

A combination package of candlelight dinner in the museum's American Cafe and theater tickets is available. For additional information, call the Reservations Center at 271-1620.

Psychiatrists call for changes in mental health system

"We must either increase the number of beds in state hospitals or fund alternatives quickly in the community."

At a minimum, an additional $350 million a year should be allocated for mental health programs in Michigan, Dr. Bornstein said.

Key findings of the MPS study include:

- While the chronically mentally ill population is growing, publicly-funded mental health services have fallen to a "deplorable level."
- The emphasis in recent years on de-institutionalization of the mentally ill has created a "revolving door" for the chronically ill who are repeatedly admitted to and discharged from state hospitals.
- Community mental health programs are inadequate for the number of persons who need public mental health services.
- State hospitals have deteriorated physically as well as in staffing, research and training.
- The state is trying to run a mental health program without a sufficient number of psychiatrists.
- The training of new psychiatrists, who are needed to provide mental health services in the future, has been jeopardized by the threat of budget cuts and the loss of state facilities for training.

"Psychiatric leadership is critical to the solution of these problems," said James H. Graves, M.D., chairman of the MPS task force which studied the mental health system. "It has become increasingly apparent that psychiatric input, of a clinical nature, is insufficient at the Department of Mental Health, and this situation must be remedied."

"The policy of placing larger and larger numbers of chronically ill patients from the hospital into the community has serious problems connected with it. It is apparent that the community has been unable to absorb and develop adequate services for the people already placed there."

"Many patients in need of long-term care are discharged repeatedly into the community where they are not well enough to remain, and return to the hospital again and again. A policy which makes such a pattern persist must be changed. The revolving door must be stopped," Dr. Graves added.

For example, he said, of approximately 5,000 admissions to Northville State Hospital each year, two out of three are readmissions. Only one out of three is a new admission.

The scope of the problem of chronic mental illness is far greater than the state is equipped to handle at present, Dr. Graves said.

"Agencies responsible for provision of basic survival-level care for the homeless in the Detroit area estimate that there are in excess of 27,000 homeless people in the metropolitan area," he said. "Surveys carried out in many urban centers indicate that at least half of the homeless people have major psychiatric illnesses. Of that half, at least one-third require hospital-level or hospital-like management."

"If we hospitalized immediately all of those homeless mentally ill in Michigan, who require some kind of hospital care, it would cost in excess of $140 million a year."

The MPS study makes a series of recommendations to improve the care and treatment of the mentally ill. The recommendations cover three key areas:

- Restoring the deteriorating physical plants of state mental hospitals to standard.
- Restructuring and expanding of publicly funded community psychiatric programs.
- An emphasis on education in all the mental health disciplines.

The report emphasizes that the state mental hospital as an institutional facility must be preserved as an essential part of the mental health services delivery system.

Key recommendations include:

- Michigan state hospitals should be brought up to a level of excellence in terms of physical plant, programming and staffing sufficient to meet generally accepted standards for accreditation, both in terms of patient care and as educational institutions.
- Decisions as to which patients are treated in state hospitals should be based on clinical requirements, not fiscal or political considerations which now strongly influence such choices.
- The hospitals should be related functionally to the state's universities and should be centers of education and research, particularly relating to the problems of chronic mental illness.

- The hospitals should be related functionally to the state's universities and should be centers of education and research, particularly relating to the problems of chronic mental illness.
- The participation of psychiatric leadership should be regarded as indispensable to the successful operation of community psychiatric programs at the county level of government.
- The relationship between the Department of Mental Health and community mental health boards must be further clarified, particularly in terms of program priorities.
- Patients from state facilities should be placed in the community only after adequate local preparation for their care.
- Psychiatric residency programs in public facilities should be closely integrated with the departments of psychiatry at Michigan's medical schools.
- The state must assure that any resident physician accepted into a training program will be able to complete that program without fear of termination or interruption because of a lack of continuing funding. This is necessary to recruit top quality psychiatrists in training.
- Psychiatric residency programs in Michigan should provide training for leadership positions in public service as well as private practice.

Section 8.4 was not approved. It was suggested if the City wants to hold its primary election on the Tuesday following the second Monday in September, it may do so by passing an ordinance within seven months of the date of a regular City odd year election. If this is not done, state law then provides the primary must be conducted on the Tuesday following the first Monday in August.
84 - 475
Motion by Baumann, supported by Wadsworth, to concur with the Attorney General's recommendation and resubmit the amendments to Section 4.9 (h), and 13.2, as amended, to the Governor for approval. Further, to send a copy of same to the Attorney General for approval.

84 - 476
Motion by Baumann, supported by Block, to concur with the recommendation of the Attorney General and introduce an ordinance pursuant to P.A. 116 of 1954 to change the day the City of Romulus holds its odd year primary election from the second Monday in September to the Tuesday following the second Monday in September.
Roll Call Vote Showing: Ayes - Banks, Baumann, Block, Raspberry, Wadsworth.
Nays - None. Motion Carried Unanimously.
Councilman Baumann commended Senator Faust and his staff for their help in hastening the review of the charter amendments by the Attorney General.
Finance Director's Contract
Mayor McAnally indicated in order to fill the position of Finance Director, left vacant by the resignation of Patsy Cantrell, ads will be placed in such sources as the Municipal Review, and the Romulus Roman to name a few. The person to fill the position must have an M.E.A. in accounting, as well as, two (2) to five (5) years on the job experience in municipal accounting.
While searching for a qualified person to fill the vacated position, someone with an accounting background is necessary to oversee the accounting procedures and finance staff, working approximately twenty (20) hours per week. Mayor McAnally recommended Donovan McGuire, who is a Certified Public Accountant, to act as Interim Finance Director. Mr. McGuire previously worked for the City of Romulus as an auditor and has an extensive background in the accounting field. If approved, he would be able to start immediately.
City Attorney, Barry Seifman, has drawn up a proposed contract for Council's approval.
84 - 477
Motion by Baumann, supported by Wadsworth, to authorize Mayor McAnally to enter into a contract with Donovan McGuire, as Interim Finance Director, at the rate of Twenty-Six Dollars ($26.00) per hour, working approximately twenty (20) hours per week, to oversee the accounting department until a new full-time Finance Director is appointed.
Roll Call Vote Showing: Ayes - Banks, Baumann, Block, Raspberry, Wadsworth. Nays - None. Motion Carried Unanimously.
Proposed Adult Foster Care Facilities
There are three (3) Adult Foster Care Homes proposed in the City of Romulus: 9520 Ozga, 16820 Wayne Rd., and 6047-51 Carnegie. It is the responsibility of the local government to notify residents within a 1500 foot radius of a proposed facility. Three (3) most commonly used means of notifying the public are:
1. A public hearing involving neighborhood residents, local officials, state department representatives, the applicant, the developer, and other interested persons.
2. A direct mailing to all residences within 1500 feet of the proposed facility.
3. A publication of a notice of intent to license the facility in a local newspaper of general circulation.
Questions were raised as to whom should bear the expense for notification of the public. Councilman Raspberry suggested a communication be sent to the State Representative requesting costs be deferred to those requesting the public hearing or that the state should hold the public hearing, as they will be licensing the facility.
84 - 478
Motion by Raspberry, supported by Wadsworth, to defer any action on the notices of request to license three (3) adult foster care facilities in the City of Romulus, located at 9520 Ozga, 16820 Wayne Rd., and 6047-51 Carnegie, until the next Council Meeting. Roll Call Vote Showing: Ayes - Banks, Baumann, Block, Raspberry, Wadsworth.

Motion by Block, supported by Wadsworth, to adjourn meeting, time 8:00 P.M. Roll Call Vote Showing: Ayes - Banks, Baumann, Block, Raspberry, Wadsworth. Nays - None. Motion Carried Unanimously.
